

I feel very strongly that the radio waves are owned by the public. It is shameful that a change in regulation, which would benefit only large corporations, should be railroaded through without full and extended public debate. I implore you to allow more time for this debate!